THE VENUES:

STOURHEAD

There's so much to see in Stourhead's garden, with spectacular landscapes and architectural treasures galore. Whether you want to take a stroll or soak up the sights, sounds and smells of this world-renowned estate, you're sure to have a memorable visit. One of the main focal points of Stourhead's garden is its lake. Take the path alongside it to enjoy magnificent vistas, the atmospheric Grotto, and Gothic Cottage, plus a wide range of plants and trees. Stourhead estate on the Wiltshire-Somerset border is the perfect day out for you. A breathtaking 18th century landscape garden with lakeside walks, grottoes and classical temples is only the beginning. You can also visit Stourhead House, a Palladian mansion with a fantastic regency library and beautiful art collection. There is also a large National Trust shop and restaurant, as well as an art gallery, pub, ice cream parlour, and farm shop for you to enjoy.

WESTCROFT GARDEN

Westcroft garden is open on select days as part of the National Garden Scheme. Overflowing with roses in June, this $\frac{2}{3}$ acre galanthophile's garden on chalk are on show. Brick and flint walls, terraces, rustic arches, gates and pond add character. With a growing collection of well over 500 named varieties. Many hellebores, pulmonarias, grasses and seedheads add interest. An ideal habitat for wildlife, (birds, oil beetles, frogs, toads, bees and butterflies), the garden evolves into a wilderness paradise as the year progresses.

COST: To include return coach transfers as above, entry to Stourhead Garden & House, Westcroft Gardens, tea or coffee and homemade cake at Westcroft and the services of an Event Manager throughout.

£65.00. per guest LESS National Trust membership (Stourhead Gardens only - card to be shown) £18.75
